

2019 ANAC DEI Student Mentorship Scholarship NOMINATION FORM OVERVIEW

Description:

The goals of the Diversity Equity and Inclusion (DEI) Student Mentorship Scholarship are:

- To recognize a student from a diverse racial or ethnic background who has a genuine interest in HIV care across the HIV care continuum and is interested in attending the ANAC national conference.
- To establish a mentor/mentee relationship between the recipient and a local member and/or committee member that will continue to develop after the conference.

The recipient of this award will receive:

- A $1,000 student scholarship
 - NOTE: This scholarship will be paid out in two $500 (five hundred dollar) installments over the course of the mentorship year.
 - Installment one: Received at the annual conference
 - Installment two: Received after the successful completion of the mentorship year based on submitted learning objectives and final report.
- Up to $600 in travel reimbursement to attend the ANAC annual conference
- Complimentary 2019 conference registration
- Admission to the awards ceremony
- An award plaque
- A Two-year ANAC membership

Members of the ANAC DEI committee will serve as the official guide/host for the recipient while attending the conference.

An ANAC member will be assigned as the recipient's primary mentor and will maintain monthly contact at a minimum.

Eligibility Criteria and Instructions for Nomination:

- Nominations can be submitted by anyone but must be supported by at least one current ANAC member. Self-nomination is allowed. All ANAC members must have a current paid membership in order to support a student's nomination for this award.
- Nominee must be a member of a historically under-represented racial or ethnic minority group in nursing or other health-related disciplines.
- Nominee must be currently enrolled in an accredited nursing or health-related education program. Verification of enrollment is required. (Note: nursing students or students of other health-related fields at all levels of education are eligible to be nominated for this award)

- Nominees must submit a typed essay, no more than 500 words, describing their interest or experience in HIV care and their short and long term objectives/intentions within their field of study.
- Current ANAC national board members, ANAC national staff, awards committee and DEI committee members are NOT eligible.

Completed forms and required supporting documents have to be in the ANAC office no later than July 16, 2019. Please combine all documents and submit as one document in pdf format via fax to (330) 670-0109 or email to erin@anacnet.org. Late or incomplete documents will not be accepted.

Selection Process:

A five-member sub-committee made up of representatives from the host city chapter (1), (If a current chapter exists in the host city), the awards committee (1), and the DEI committee (3) will review the nominations and select the recipient of this award.

Selection will be based on: (a) the quality of the essay (clarity, comprehension, absence of grammatical, spelling, usage errors), (b) HIV-related experience, and (c) the stated interest or vision for study/service/practice/advocacy in HIV care, prevention, or education.

Notification of the selection committee decision will come in early September 2019.

Please attach ALL of the following items to your application:

1. A typed 500-word personal statement by the applicant, describing their interest or experience in HIV care and their short and long term objectives/intentions within their field of study. Please keep the personal statement to a maximum of 500 words. Statements of more than 500 words will not be considered.
2. Current ANAC member statement of support form (limited to 1 page; we will accept a separate document attached to the application).
