Poster Presentations

Thursday, November 2
Noon – 1:15 p.m.
Friday, November 3
9:45 – 10:15 p.m.
Exhibit Hall/Regency Ballroom

P-1
Overcoming Clinical Inertia by Example: Introducing PrEP to a Community of Hesitant Prescribers
Christine Brennan

P-2
Curriculum Development – One Tool to Combat HIV/AIDS and TB: The Swaziland Experience
Janel Smith

P-3
Strengthening the Quality and Quantity of the Nursing and Midwifery Workforce: A report on eight years of the NEPI Project
Amina Khawja

P-4
Preceptorship Education Training Program (PETP) for Accelerated Scale-up of HIV Care and Treatment in Malawi
Paul Sakanda

P-5
The Crisis is Not Over: Energizing a New Generation of Nurses Around HIV/AIDS Care
Alanna Bergman

P-6
Food Insecurity is More Common Than Predicted in an HIV-Positive Cohort
Kara Ihrke

P-7
Perceived Barriers to Smoking Cessation and Perceptions of Electronic cigarettes among Persons Living with HIV (PLWH)
Patricia Cioe
School Nurses’ Awareness, Attitudes, & Role Perception Toward Sexual Exploitation of Children and HIV Risk
Teri Aronowitz

Cardiovascular Health Risk Perception in People with HIV: The Role of Depression
Joseph Perazzo

Reaching the First 90 in Uganda: Predictors of Success and Failure in Contacting and Testing the Named Sexual Partners of HIV+ Index Clients in Kiboga District
Katherine Reed

Strategies for Practice Implementation of HIV/HCV Screening Across a Health System
Pamela Gorman

Access to Healthcare is not the Issue: Perception of Risk and HIV Testing Behavior of Zimbabwe-born Immigrants in the US.
Clara Gona

Perceptions of a Multi-Modal Cognitive Intervention for Older Adults with HIV: A Focus Group Study
David Vance

The Global Health Service Partnership: An Innovative Approach to Strengthening Nursing and Midwifery Education in Countries with High HIV Burden and Shortages in Human Resources for Health
Julie Anathan

Psychosocial Characteristics associated with Retention in HIV Care among African American Women Living with HIV ages 25-44
Crystal Chapman Lambert

Student Posters

Cervical Cancer Screening in HIV Positive Women
Joshua Oderanti

Reaching the First 90 in Uganda: Predictors of Success and Failure in Contacting and Testing the Named Sexual Partners of HIV+ Index Clients in Kiboga District
Katherine Reed, Joachim Voss, Joanita Kigoz, Patience Nyakato, Nickson Ankunda, Brenda Kalebbo, Michael Musiitwa, Alex Mgunzi, Nelson Sewankambo, Damalie Nakanjako
SP-3
Risk of Adverse Effects of Alcohol Use Among PLWH Over the Age of 40
Song Ge, Michael Sanchez

SP-4
Educating the Educators: Incorporating LGBT Terminology in the Healthy Love Curriculum
Shanna-Kaye Igbinoba

SP-5
Nursing Knowledge and Attitudes Toward Trans* and Gender-Nonconforming Patients
Christine Humphrey

SP-6
The Sero – Prevalence of HIV/AIDS Among Clients Aged 18 years and Above Screened From January 2014 to December 2016 Attending Private Medical Laboratory Diagnostic Centre in Abuja, North Central Nigeria
Goodness Mgbowula, Gabriel Okezie

SP-7
Knowledge and Attitude Regarding Prevention of Mother to Child Transmission (PMTCT) of HIV Among Women Attending Antenatal Clinic at Karshi General Hospital, Abuja
Goodness Mgbowula, Gabriel Okezie

SP-8
HIV Prevention with African American Gay Family and Ballroom Networks
Martez Smith

SP-9
Predictors of Being Lost to HIV Care Among Pregnant and Postpartum Women: A Systemic Review
Emmanuela Ojukwu, Rosa Gonzalez-Guardia

SP-10
HIV Care Clinicians’ Perspectives on HPV Self-Sampling for Cervical Cancer Screening
Kelly Schoch, Samantha Anderson